A New Orleans weekender

Jessica Bacon, 33, married René Defieber, 36, at Marigny Opera House, USA, followed by a reception at New Orleans Museum of Art, on 9th March 2019. She says:

The first thing we decided on? New Orleans, despite having never been! It looked like a fun city and we knew guests would love it. We wanted iconic locations with lots of character. We couldn't decide on one venue so ended up having four! We held a welcome party on the Friday, our ceremony at Marigny Opera House and cocktails on the steps at New Orleans Museum of Art, followed by our dinner and reception inside. The colour theme was a mix of rich golds and emerald greens. We thought jewel tones matched the vibrancy of the city and would stand out against our crisp white flowers. After the ceremony we had a traditional parade led by a brass band. We all danced in the street with parasols in hand and guests waving hankies – and people came out of their houses to join in. We hired a local street poet to create unique poems for guests on a typewriter as a memento.
